

An initiative of the Institute for
New Economic Thinking

New York, NY
December 11th, 2019

Dear Hafizah Binti Bahaludin,

It is with great pleasure that we invite you to present your work at the Workshop on Economic Networks as part of the NetSci-X 2020 conference hosted by the Complexity Economics, Urban and Regional Economics and East Asia Working Groups on 23rd of January, 2020 in Tokyo, Japan

The pre-conference workshop welcomes papers that deal with various themes in economic and financial networks from across disciplines. Accepted scholars are also invited to attend the NetSci-X 2020 conference, to be held on the 24th of January, 2020 at the Waseda University International Conference Center, Tokyo, Japan.

To facilitate your participation, YSI will provide you with a stipend of USD 350 to cover return travel costs and we will offer you accommodation Hotel Sunroute Higashi Shinjuku for 2 nights from the 22nd (check-in) to the 24th (check-out) of January, 2020.

If you have any questions, please be in touch with the organizing committee at:
urban@youngscholarsinitiative.org

The Young Scholars Initiative (YSI) is a community of research-oriented students. We embrace open debate and critical and self-reflective thinking, which will lead us to better understand economic phenomena.

We very much hope that you will accept our invitation. As a member of the YSI community your presence, insights, and participation would contribute greatly to the quality and rigor of our discourse.

Sincerely,

A stylized, handwritten signature in black ink, consisting of a large 'H' followed by a horizontal line and a dot.

Heske van Doornen
Manager YSI

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Jay Pocklington" in a cursive style.

Jay Pocklington
Manager YSI

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Thomas Vass" in a cursive style.

Thomas Vass
Manager YSI